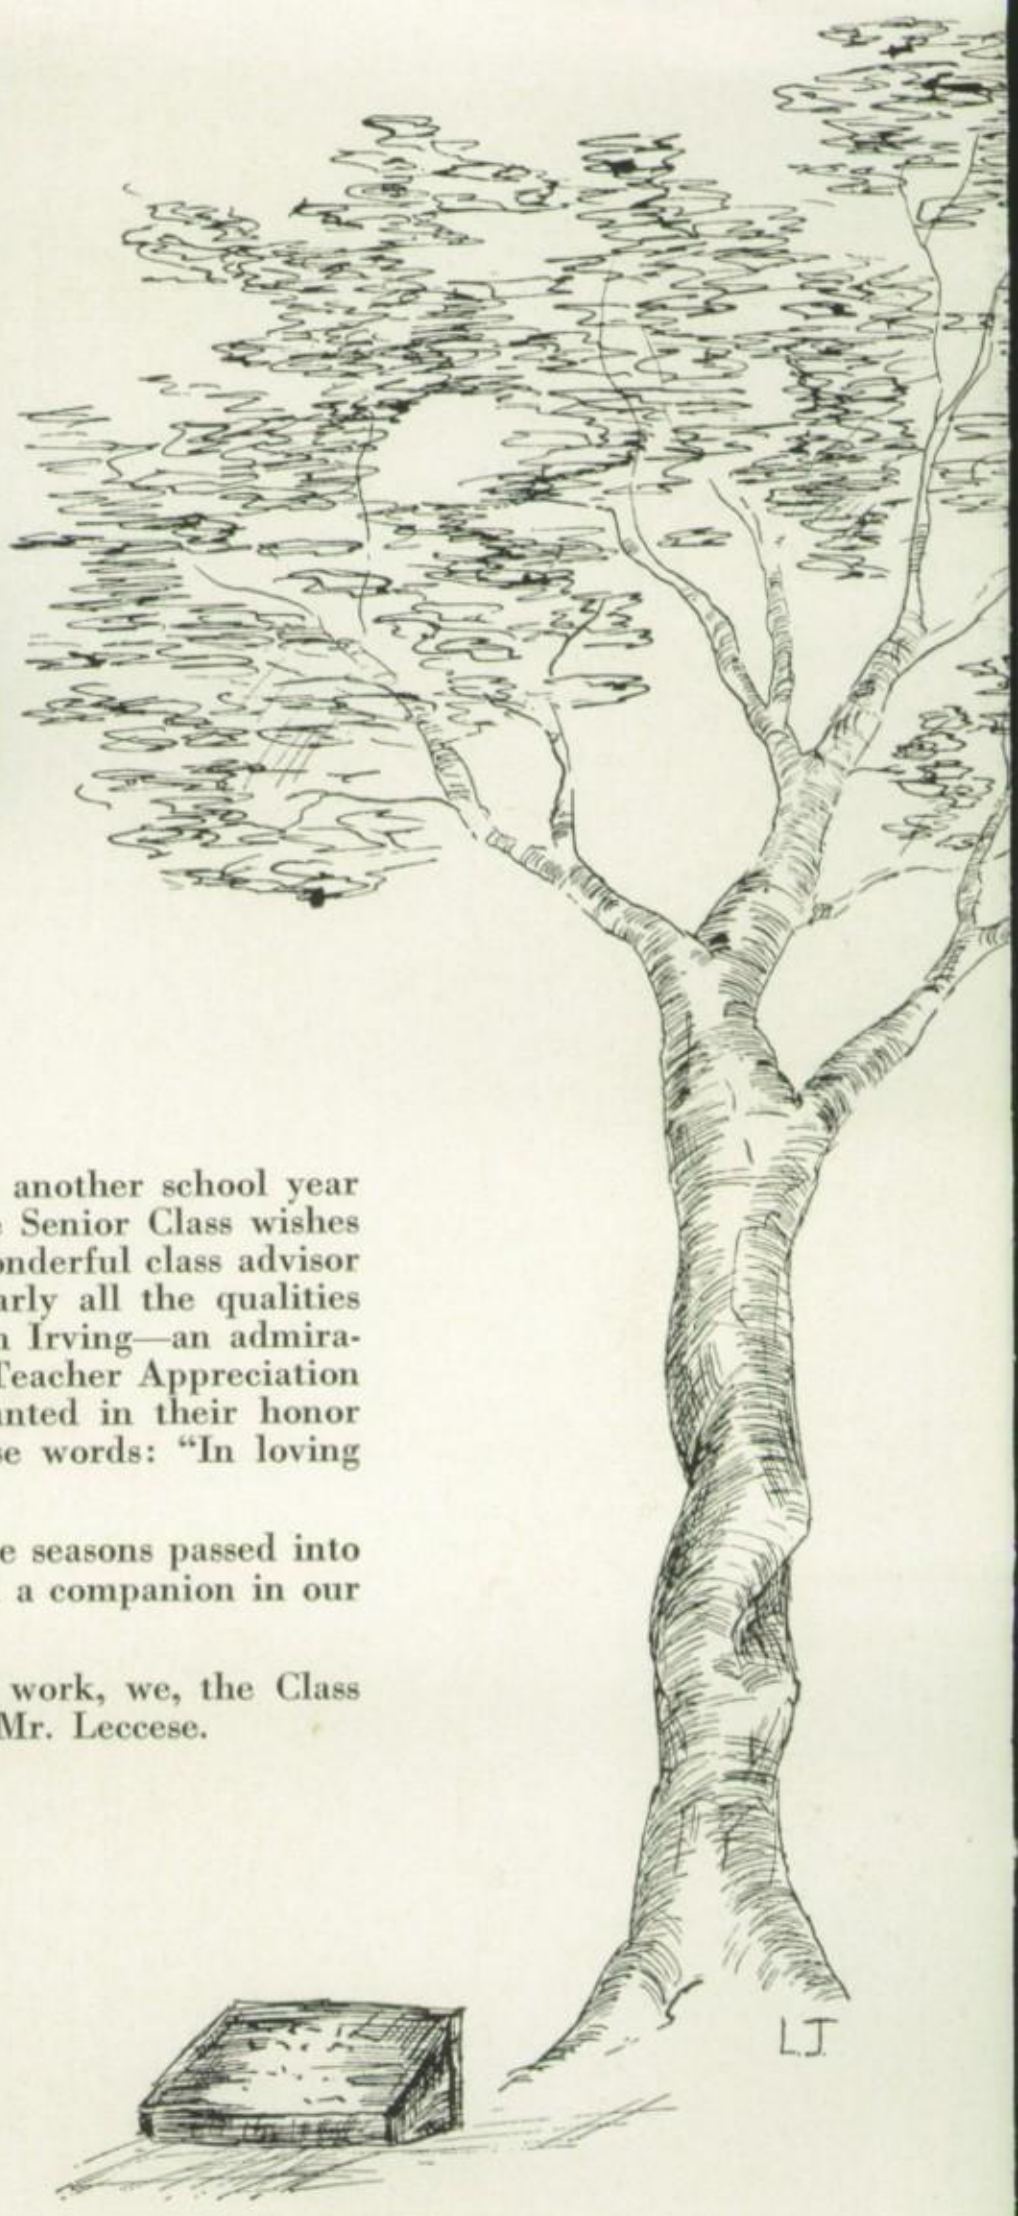
We dedicate to



As June, which marks not only the end of another school year but our own last year at W. I., approaches, the Senior Class wishes to dedicate its Alhambra to Mr. Leccese, our wonderful class advisor and friend. Mr. Leccese typifies to us particularly all the qualities which we admire in our teachers at Washington Irving—an admiration which all the students tried to express on Teacher Appreciation Day last Spring when a dogwood tree was planted in their honor in front of the school and dedicated with these words: "In loving appreciation of all the teachers of W. I."

Our indebtedness to Mr. Leccese grew as the seasons passed into years. Mr. Leccese served as a guiding light and a companion in our numerous class activities.

With the remembrance of your unceasing work, we, the Class of '56, joyfully dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Leccese.

The Tarrytown School Systems welcome their new superintendent, Dr. Gaffney. He comes to us from a similar position at Leroy, New York.

Dr. Gaffney received his B. A. degree from Hobart College, his M. A. in history from the University of Rochester and his Doctorate in Education from the University of Buffalo. During the war he served as an officer in the U. S. N. R., working on anti-submarine warfare.

We, the graduating class at Washington Irving, wish him complete success in his future years in the Tarrytowns.

Dr. Mathew Gaffney
Superintendent

The Board of Education

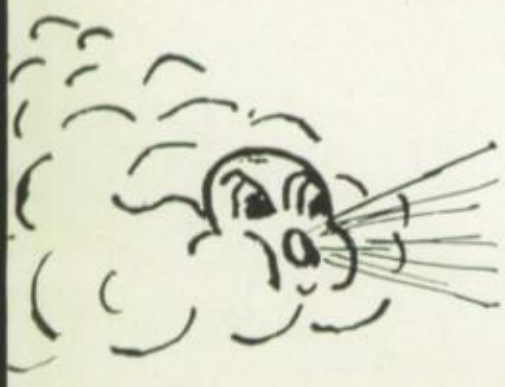
OF W.

The Boosters' Club of the combined Tarrytowns was formed to encourage parents' interest in the schools' extra-curricular activities. As a part of its program it not only sponsors a two hundred and fifty dollar scholarship to a boy or girl of the graduating Senior Class, but also awards war bonds for outstanding athletic ability, high scholastic standing, and worthy school citizenship.

The Boosters' Club

Parent Teacher Association

The PTA annually awards scholarship student aid funds to Seniors. Last Spring Louise Erikson, Eleanor Bradley, and Carol Foreman received the awards from Mrs. Dieterich. It also donates a plaque which is given to the homeroom with the best record for safety in school.



STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the able guidance of Miss Worthington, the G. O. accomplished much during the year. Two well-attended dances were held, one in the Fall and one in the Spring. The Social Service and Track Meet Committees were successful in their events. The G. O. officers participated in two panels, one on the bond issue for the new school, the other on industry. Representatives attended Student Government Day in White Plains. An assembly program commemorating Armistice Day and Education Week was sponsored by the G. O.

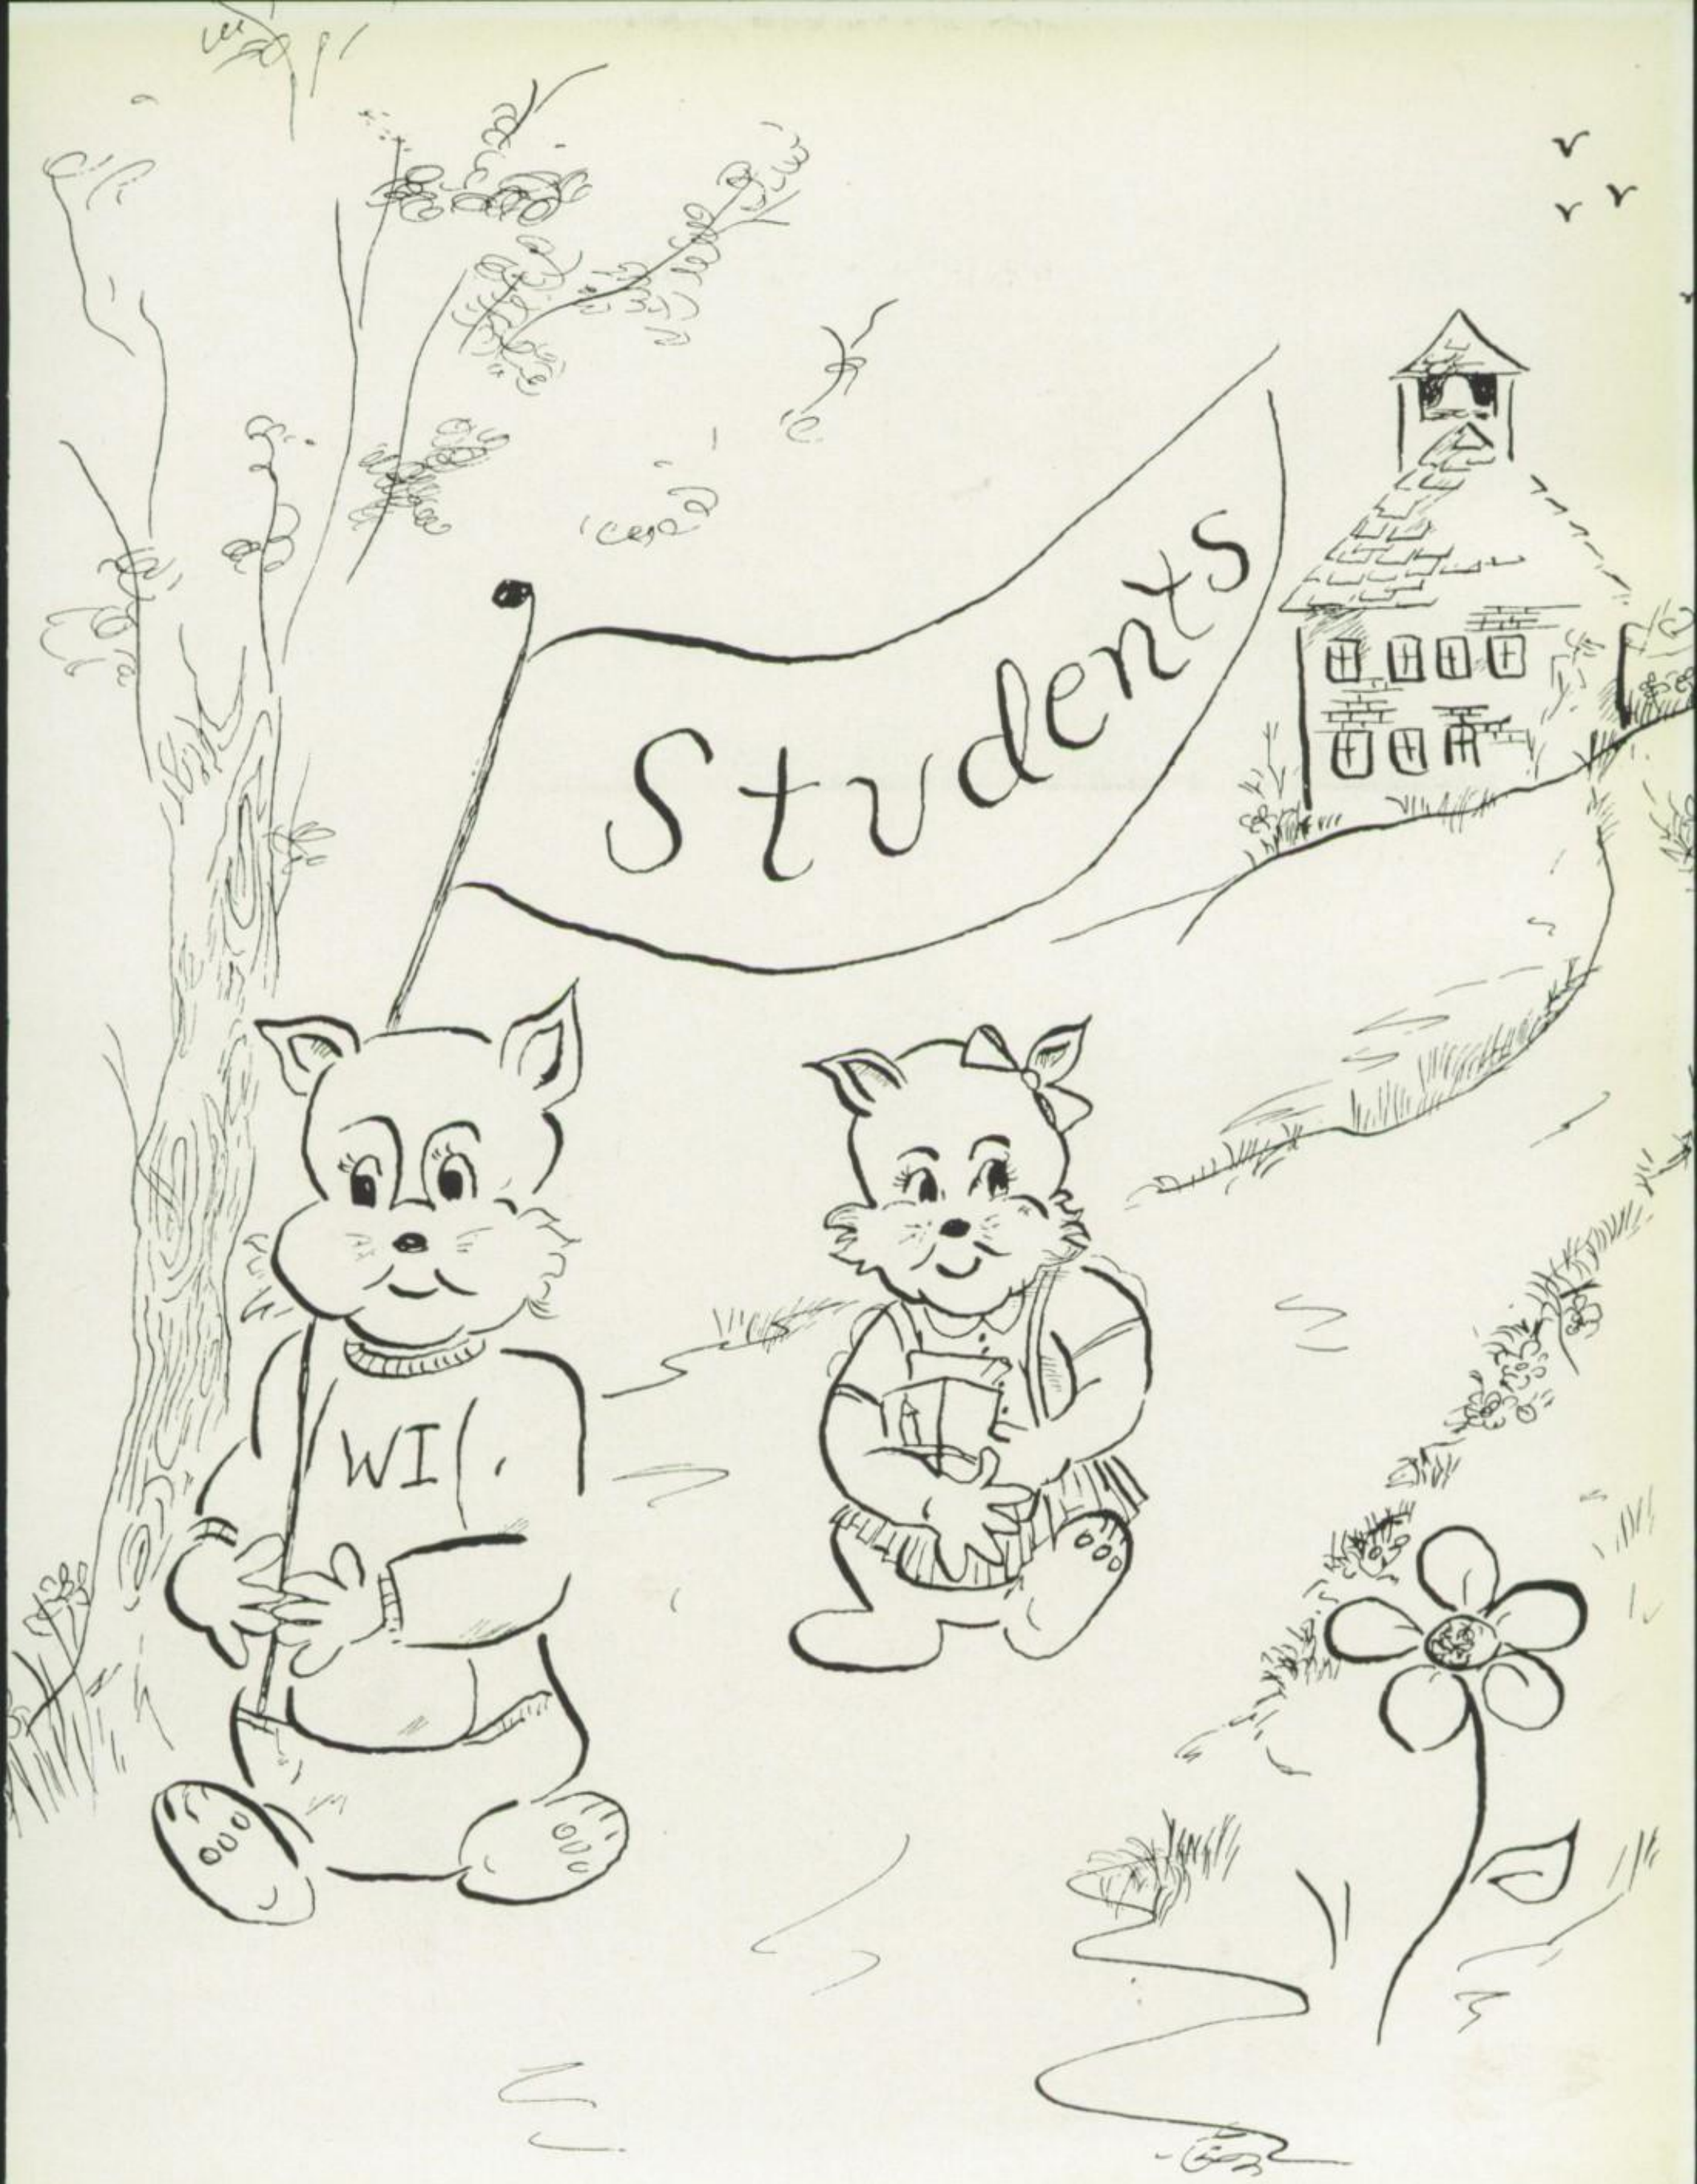
Happy Memories

Mr. Clifford Dinsmore becomes an honorary member of the Honor Society.

The student body happily remembers their retired teachers, Mrs. Hadley, Miss Canfield, and Mr. Dinsmore, and the time and effort that they gave for the advancement and benefit of Washington Irving. We shall always recall Mr. Dinsmore's devotion to music and his entertaining Spring concerts, Mrs. Hadley's successful dramatizations on the W. I. stage, Miss Canfield's lively and interesting literature classes which reflected her sparkling personality. We wish them many joyful years in retirement.

Miss Margaret Canfield, Mrs. Ethel Hadley

Students



SENIORS

ROBERT A. MABLI

Mabe, President of the class, who hopes to be in a wind tunnel in 1966, says, "Eh", while flying low over Butler's and listening to "Mabeleine".

DENNIS MATHIESON

Matty, our Vice President, may be found at Whelan's listening to "Rock Around the Clock," pulling for the Dodgers, and telling a customer, "You're out of your mind."

RUTH ANNE HOFFENBURG

Hoffie, Secretary this year, hopes to be at home with the kids in '66. She's found with Jan although she enjoys being with Gil, too. Hoffie says, "Isn't that cute?"

ROBERT FRANCIS STEVENS

Bob, our Treasurer, is found with Julie at 13 Highland Avenue as he says, "We've got to have a long talk sometime." In '66 Bob'll work for the Highway Department.

JOEL EDWARD ABRAHAM

Yogi says "Take it easy," as he plans to make his third million in the future. Yogi, while keeping out of trouble at the Rock, dislikes school on Monday.

FRANK CARL ADAMS

Atlas says "I Should Care," and "Who knows?" when speaking of 1966. He is found in Glenville and his favorite pastime is participating in school sports.

DEBORAH AVERY

Debbie plans to be nursing in India or Africa in 1966, but is now found in 207 with the "Dummy", where she thumbs through old Alhambras while humming "Sixteen Tons."

JEAN FRANCES BIRD

Birdie says, "Who me?" and "Why Don't You Believe Me?" to Lloyd. Time will tell what she'll be doing in '66 but now she does things that seem worthwhile.

DORIS JANE BROWN

Dar listens to, "If I Give My Heart to You," on the radio at Riverview Avenue. She says, "I don't know," while looking for something to do in 1966.

BRADLEY JOHN BRUCE

MANNA

Marie won't commit herself about the future but now we know that she's found at Connie's eating and sleeping. Her favorite song is "I'll Never Stop Loving You."

STEPHEN JOHN
MARGETJAK

Steve is found reading those "Mad" comics or dreaming in outer space. That figures since he hopes to be on the moon in 1966. His favorite song is "I Believe."

MARSHALL

Steve is looking forward to 1966 without any school problems that he now faces as in history. Steve only says "Oh" because he likes to sleep most of the time.

RALPH J. MARU

Ralph likes to hear any song by Joni James while warming up for pro-ball in 1966. Need we say that his favorite pastime is sports. He's found up the Creek.

JULIANNE MASARECH

Julie says that singing and talking are her favorite pastimes. She's found at F. W. Woolworth's humming, "Honest Darling, Believe Me."

LILA BEVERLY MAYS

Li says, "You can be replaced" but sings "I'll String Along with You" to Aldo Ray, her favorite. Lila is found writing letters or dreaming.

CAROLYN JOY MOORE

Carol says "Oh, no!" while O. T. ing somewhere and listening to "Under Paris Skies" in 1966. She's found helping Betty sort G. O. cards or looking for Algebra books in sewers.

KATHLEEN ELLEN MOORE

Kathy will say "Suddenly There's A Valley" to her elementary school pupils in 1966. She and Veronica are found swimming or horseback riding after school hours.

BARBARA LEE MYERS

Babs is found with Crow and sings "Only You and You Alone" to him. She will be making her first million in 1966.

JAMES GERALD NIELSON

Jim says, "Go, man, go," to his famous blue car while humming the tune of "The Kentucky Rose." He's found working with his brother at the Fairview Esso Station.

DENNIS PALMER

Owl says, "Such is life" in 1966 when he'll be at college. Dennis is found at Walton's, sleeping, or listening to "Answer Me, Oh My Love."

FLORENCE G. PETLOCK

Flo will listen to "Honey Babe" at Silver Lake in 1966. Right now she is home in Glenville writing letters to Camp LeJeune.

BARBARA ANN RAE

In 1966 Barbs will be recording "Pledging My Love" for her fan club. Now she is found with Penny, cheerleading, or practicing with the Hudsonaires.

ROSE MARIE REASOR

Rodgie says, "I want to tell you that it's 'Only You'," as she keeps house for Hockey in 1966. Rose's favorite pastime is driving a black Ford.

SANDRA JEAN RENO

Sandy sings "Your Heart, My Heart" to her husband in 1966 when she hopes to be in California. She says, "Oh! you're kidding," to Vivian. Her favorite pastime is singing.

JAMES ANTHONY RODGERS

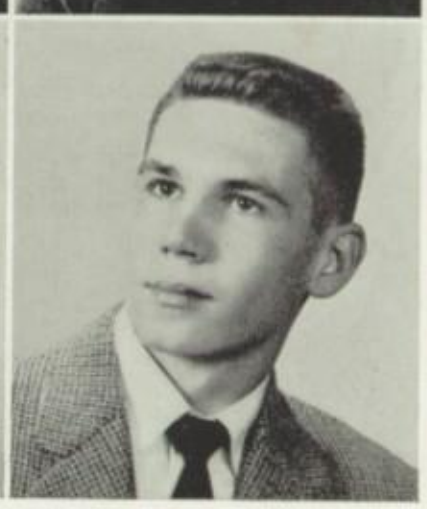
Friend enjoys being a wise guy as he says, "You witch," to a girl. In 1966 he'll still be trying to hit the moon but now he's found at Raven Rock.

TIMOTHY KING RODGERS

Wuff says, "O. K., O. K. don't get all shook," when Jacky's waiting at the V.T. apartments. His favorite song is "Only You" and time will tell about the future.

KATHLEEN SANCHEZ

Kathleen's favorite saying and song are "Oh, well!" and "Go On With the Wedding" while her favorite pastime is talking on the telephone. In '66 "Who knows?"



FRANCIS RAUCH SCHMID, III

Frank, like Gunner, is found "On the Rock" or cruising on foot, as he puts it. If Schmitti doesn't catch a fish he says, "Don't rub it in."

CHARLES MALLARY SINGLETON

Rebel will still be in school when 1966 rolls around or interning, maybe? He likes to hear Dixie (a loyal Southerner) and he likes Phyllis, too.

JOHN SMITH

Big Mike is pessimistic about the future. In 1966 he only says, "Still living, I hope." He's found in Glover's Candy Store with Dolores listening to "Adorable Baby."

KENDALL CARL SMITH

Casey listens to "Sixteen Tons" when he's at the pool room. His favorite pastime is "skirts" and in 1966 he won't be doing anything that hasn't been done already.

SARAH HARTMAN SMITH

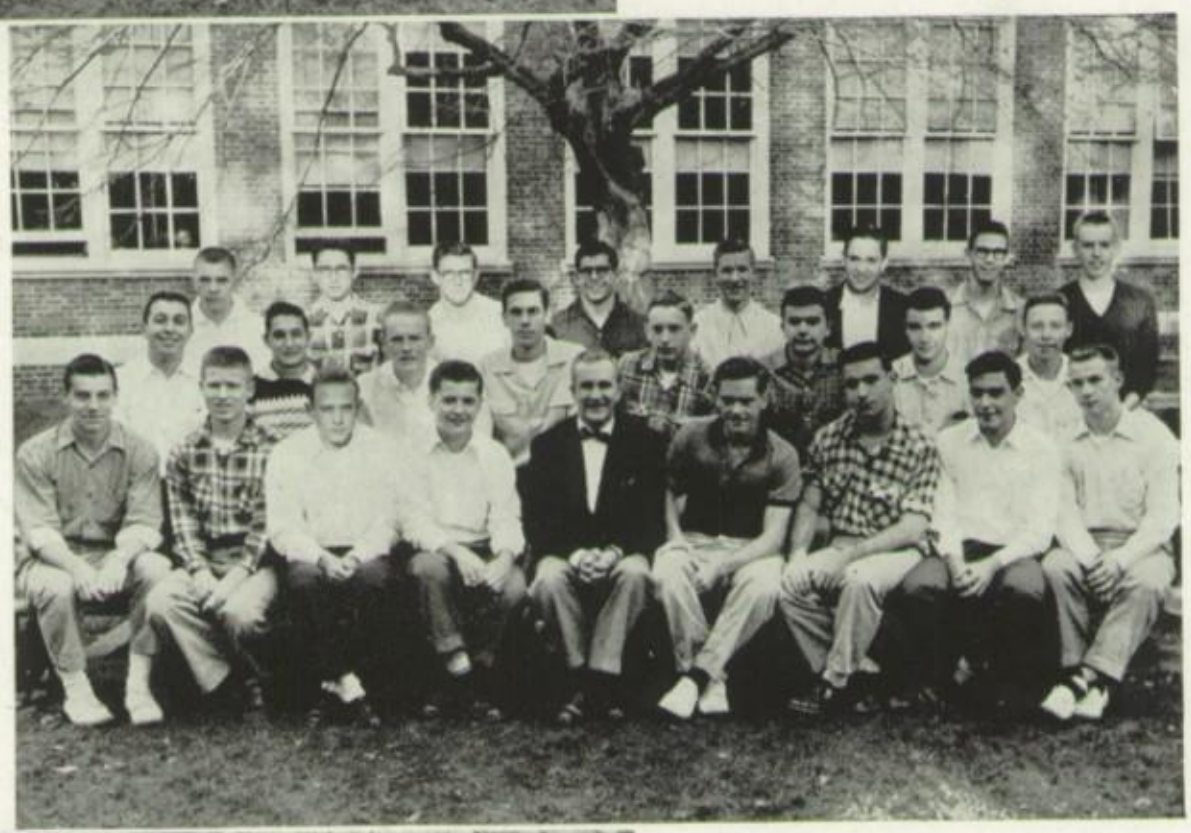
W. I. Girls' Hi-Y

Led by officers Carole Vincent, Carolyn Clary, Norma Ciancaglini, Barbara Clements, Betsy Austin, Florence Johnson, and advisor, Mrs. Mangiacapra, the W. I. Girls' Hi-Y sponsored the Victory Dance and cake and cookie sales for world service. After the meetings the girls merrily skipped to the gym to display their athletic talents on the trampoline or basketball court.



W. I. Boys' Hi-Y

The Boys' Hi-Y, led by Dennis Mathieson, Tim Lawson, Ken Walpuck, Bob Stevens, and Bob Mabli, put most of its efforts into the Community Chest, Fight for Sight, and Mentally Retarded Children Drives. Aside from service to the community, the boys presented a bill at the County Assembly and then sent Tony Rodgers to the Albany Assembly.

Sleepy Hollow Hi-Y

The namesake club of our future high school served on the drive for mentally retarded children, presented a dance in February, donated funds to world service, and in the spring took a trip to the enjoyment of all. The officers were Rose Reasor, Cheryl Ashburn, Paola Mangiacapra, Debbie Avery, and Beverly Burke with advisor Mrs. Reasor.

Junior Hi-Y

Among the activities of the newly formed Junior Hi-Y were selling Christmas tree lights to increase its treasury and serving refreshments at the senior clubs' dances. The girls elected Carolyn Jones, President, Nancy Eisen, Vice President, Penny DePew, Secretary, Joanne Clary, Treasurer, and Rose Reasor as their advisor.

History Club

The American History classes joined together to promote a better understanding of our heritage as Americans. With Mr. Hynes for inspiration and officers Bob Stevens, Ann Solomon, Connie Vetrano, Florence Johnson, and Barbara MacKinnon, the club enjoyed a very interesting year. Among its projects were trips to the United Nations and Radio City and a dinner held for our foreign exchange student.

Honor Society

Under the leadership of Dennis Mathieson, Betsy Austin, Carol Bloomer, and Debbie Avery, the Honor Society inducted new members into its club during an impressive assembly. Dr. Richardson acted as advisor while the members pledged themselves to high standard of scholarship, service, and character in all their activities.

The French Club has been under the able leadership of President Brian Girard, Vice President Betsy Austin, and Secretary-Treasurer Julie Kunkler this year. Meetings were held every fourth Monday of the month in Mademoiselle Langlois' room. Its project has been to speak in fluent French conversation. The members gathered on a purely social basis.

French Club

Latin Club

The Latin Club was led by President Paola Mangiacapra, Vice President Patty Cullen, Secretary Carol Langle, and Treasurer Dianne Gundell. The club held a banquet in the spring, purchased pins, and also sent CARE packages twice a year to India. By means of a co-operative program each month the members applied Roman problems and amusements to modern day situations.

The Spanish Club officers were President Ann Solomon, Vice President Lila Mays, Secretary Kitty Cullen, and Treasurer Billy Koenig. This club has had visiting speakers from foreign lands with Spanish backgrounds give the members broader understanding in their language study. Club identification pins were purchased and proudly worn. The Spanish Assembly in May was sponsored by the club.

Spanish Club

Bookworms

The Bookworms under the guidance of Miss Kloha, had as its officers President Brian Girard, Secretary Carol Bloomer, and Treasurer Jim Slattery. The Bookworms have put their time and energy into plans for the construction of a model Shakespearian theater similar to the Globe. A Broadway theater trip to New York City climaxed their monthly club meetings.

The Science Club has been led by Gerald Shapiro, Bill Gibson, Jerome Cooper, and Robert Jensen under the watchful eye of Mr. Flickinger. The adequate job done by the boys in the operation of the school's audio and visual apparatus for classrooms and the auditorium more than supplements for the scarcity of actual club activities although their Autumn dance, Moonlight Cruise, was an entertaining project as well as a profitable one.

Science Club

Math Club

The officers of the Washington Irving Math Club this past year were President Tony Rodgers, Program Chairman Tim Lawson, and Secretary-Treasurer Paula Gordon. Formed to stimulate interest in mathematics, the membership is limited to those students who have completed elementary algebra and who are continuing the study of higher math. Miss Hahn accompanied the members on an annual Spring picnic at Kingsland Point Park.

President Janet Goldberg, aided by Vice President Norma Ciangalini, Treasurer Rose Delmerico, and Secretary Fran Colao, organized the Future Nurses' Club that promotes nursing as a life time profession. Besides learning from Mrs. Grantham's knowledge, the members journeyed to Grasslands and the new Phelps Memorial Hospital. They also met with girls from neighboring schools who have an interest in nursing.

Future Nurses' Club

In sponsoring our Herald Tribune Foreign Exchange guest from Italy, the Junior Red Cross spent much time and effort in planning a pleasant visit for Fransesco. Frances Colao, Rose Delmerico, and Miss Wright guided the council that prepared Red Cross boxes for overseas use, following the membership drive which received one hundred per cent support. Representatives attended the county Red Cross meetings participating in its activities.

The Junior Girls' Club, a service and social club for Seventh and Eighth graders, was headed by President Charlene Mele, Vice President Patricia Camero, Treasurer Catherine Vasta, Secretary Anita Zelyes, and Reporter Cynthia Stone. Besides earning funds for their Alhambra picture the girls made egg tray favors like those displayed last year, and purchased a toy for the Robin's Nest in Phelps Memorial Hospital.

Junior Girls' Club

Senior Girls' Club

Miss Babcock, Veronica Kopa, Carol Clausen, Lana McGowan, and Kathy Marron were the main spokes of the Senior Girls' Club this year. Its annual Spring trip to New York City proved to be very exciting, as the members sat enthralled by the delightful comedy, "Teahouse of the August Moon." A Valentine's Day cookie sale raised funds for this project as well as provided materials for tray favors for children at Sunshine Cottage.

The Sunnyside has had this year as its editor-in-chief Carolyn Clary with Mr. Meany as its advisor. The newspaper gives the school news, feature columns, sports, and student comments on current controversies to the students of Washington Irving six times a year. The staff sponsored a few candy and cake sales that added funds to their treasury.

The Sunnyside

The Crimson and White

Bruce Jacobs and Cabanne Howard played leading editorial roles in the production of the Junior High newspaper, The Crimson and White. The Crimson and White, printed from four to six times during the year, gives the Seventh and Eighth grade students a chance to display their literary attributes. Many members of the staff later became important reporters for The Sunnyside.

Sleepy Hollow High School Band

Mr. Hackett has been very busy this year combining the N. T. and W. I. bands into one organization. The Sleepy Hollow Band made its initial appearance at the first football game. Besides performing at the annual Spring concert, the members played for the bridge opening on the Dave Garroway Show.

The Color Guard

The Twirling Corps

Members of the Twirling Corps from Washington Irving are: Barbara MacKinnon, Co-captain; Dianne Gundell, Sallye Smith, Carolyn Clary, Myra Goldberg, Carol Wetmore, Norma Ciancaglini, Kitty Cullen, Carol Bloomer, Margot Luders, Judy Seaman, and Arlene Turgeon.

The orchestra of Washington Irving has continued to give the high school added enjoyment with its musical selections this year. Besides accompanying the chorus at the Spring concert, the orchestra performed at the Senior and Junior Class plays to entertain during the intermissions. The orchestra also played during the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies. This group is under the direction of Mr. Hackett; the string groups meet with Miss Peterson.

DRAMATICS

The Dramatic Club

The officers of the Dramatic Club were President Lloyd Jacobs, Secretary Connie Vetrano, and Treasurer Myra Goldberg. The members of the club have been in the cast or crew of previous Junior and Senior plays.

The Junior Play this year was "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," a highly entertaining melodrama which starred Cheryl Ashburn, Brian Girard, Myrna Neimark, and Robert Montgomery in roles as the heroine, the villain, the vamp, and the hero.

The Senior Play, "The Curious Savage," an amusing comedy concerning the children of an elderly woman who send their mother to an insane asylum, starred Linda Hall as Mrs. Savage and Barbara MacKinnon, Tony Rodgers, and Frank Schmidt as the children.

The home economic courses offered at Washington Irving provide training and experience in home and family living for both boys and girls. Fully equipped kitchen areas enable home making students to prepare tantalizing foods with speed and ease. In the Model Suite future homemakers study interior decorating, fashionable dressmaking, and home nursing, all of which increase their knowledge of modern methods and ideas.

The artists of W. I. display the efforts of their year's painting every Spring. The exhibits, which appear during the concert season so that many parents and friends are able to appreciate them, represent all types of work from the seventh grade to the senior class.

Following this event students in the art department journey to Kingsland Point Park for an outing. In the fresh breeze from the Hudson everyone has an opportunity to express his appreciation of nature on canvas.

Learning the use and mechanics of the ten key adding machine is just one of the features from which students profit in the business department. Through a four year period, a student gradually becomes familiar with all the machines and aids that are to be found in an office. Besides the technical instructions, practical experience is gained through the subject, secretarial practice, when the student obtains work at a local business office.

DEPARTMENTS

Among the science subjects which a student at Washington Irving may take is biology. Scientific experiments that are connected with plants and animals occupy the double periods of the biology student. The one year course is climaxed by the complete study of the frog including its dissection.

In addition to biology, a science major may be acquired by completing physics and chemistry.

The Traffic Committee, headed by its chairman, Dennis Mathieson, is a standing committee of the Student Council and is appointed by the G. O. president. Functioning chiefly during air raid drills, fire alarm drills, and sport pep rallies, the members assist the principal in maintaining order by the supervision and regulation of the passage of the student body through the building and on the school grounds.

The Traffic Committee

Art Club

The students of the art classes, who meet Friday afternoons following school hours to complete their paintings, constitute the members of the Art Club.

These boys and girls also spent many days preparing the Christmas decorations for our library windows. The colored cellophane figures that gave a stained glass effect, brightly lighted the school building throughout the holiday evenings.

Under the leadership of Coach Dave Millman, the Washington Irving and North Tarrytown combined unit, the Sleepy Hollow Football Squad, compiled seven wins and one loss for a near perfect record. The team, although low in scoring, proved to be a stone wall defensively, since it was scored upon by only two teams.

Sleepy Hollow scored one hunrded twenty-nine points for the season via twenty touchdowns and nine extra points. This gave the team an average of sixteen points per game.

Because of the Horsemen's excellent basketball record this year, the squad competed in the Class A Sectional tournament. The final tally of this season's games was thirteen wins, three losses, and one tie. The high percentage of shots placed in the bucket by our top scorers, Ralph Maru, Stan Shauhgnessey, Pete Morasco, and Joe Caposella coupled with the rebounding of Paul Drahos and Nate DeLoach led the Sleepy Hollow team to victory. Other players on the squad whose skillful maneuvering under the boards helped to gain points were Nanny Carlin, Harvey Gross, Tom Lee, and Steve Bartel.

HOCKEY

The Washington Irving ice hockey team has been combined with North Tarrytown for a number of years, but this season the members skated at Playland under a new school, Sleepy Hollow High. Skaters who played on the starting line ups this winter were: K. C. Smith, Frank Walton, Ricky Wate, Charlie Marchi, Elmer Bealco, Jim Furphy, and Jack Centifanti.

CROSS COUNTRY

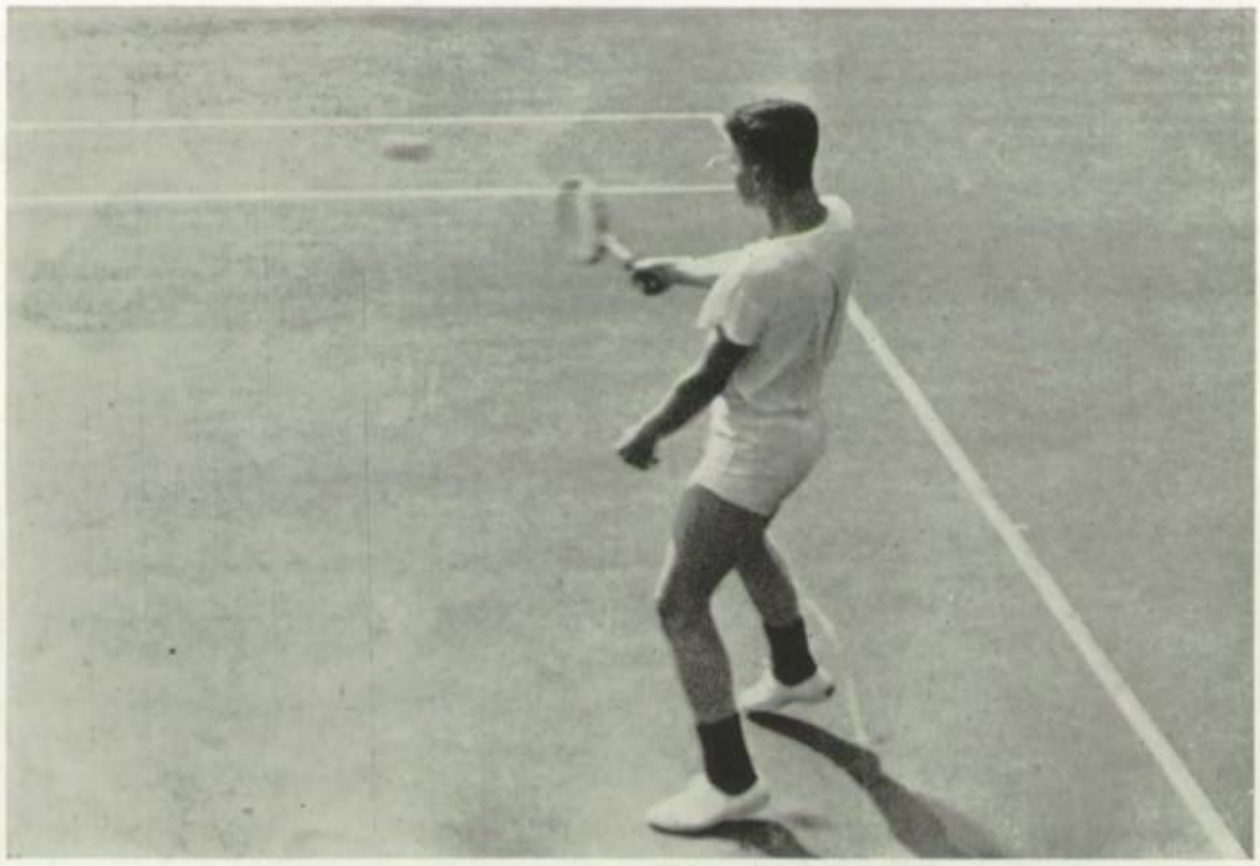
The first combined Sleepy Hollow Cross Country team had an outstanding 1955 season. In dual meets the boys captured six victories and had only one loss. The team finished first in the Section I, Class B meet and fourth in the Westchester Coaches' meet.

In the Junior High group the seventh and eighth grade placed first in the Westchester Coaches' meet while the ninth grade took third place.

Two boys were elected to the All County Team: Bill Wessel and Clarence Berry.

WRESTLING

Although the wrestling squad coached by Art Farnham did not have any victories, the experience and interest gained at the matches insured improved skill in the future years. The top wrestlers on the team were Lew Dapis, Don Andre, Wes Hains, and Bob Opie. Other boys wrestling in meets against White Plains, Concordia Prep, Nyack, and Scarsdale were Davy Bruce, Jim Derby, Pete Rae, Bob Parrigan, Willy Davis, Manual Diogo, Walter Kutrieb, and Bruce George.



TENNIS

The Author's tennis team won two matches in the Spring of 1955. Outstanding players of last season were: Clyde Soravilla, Tony Jarosch, Charlie Singleton, and Pete Van Dyke. Every afternoon at the W. I. courts Mr. Reilly coached the tennis players on their serves and rebounds.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Sleepy Hollow J. V. Football team was undefeated this past fall. It was victorious over Children's Village, Peekskill, Irvington, and Hackley and tied with Pleasantville. Games scheduled to be played against Ossining and Scarsdale were cancelled, the former because of bad weather and the latter bcause Scarsdale pleaded injuries to some of its players.

The first string, strong on both defense and offense, played very well as a team. Outstanding players were Powers, Effort, Green, Farrell, Cancro, and Johnston.

BASKETBALL

The successful basketball season for the Junior Varsity team was climaxed with a record of thirteen victories and four defeats with one game still unplayed. The Junior Horsemen squad was led by top scoring players, Andie Downey, Bob Gazzola, and John Wright. Also prominent on the court were Don Smith and Pancho Alvado, the playmaker.

SLEEPY HOLLOW ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The members of the Sleepy Hollow A. A. from W. I., who meet once a month with Dr. Gaffney and four representatives from North Tarrytown in order to discuss combined activities, are Mary Bryan, Debbie Avery, Pete Van Dyke, and Dennis Mathieson. Their decisions center primarily around sports events.

The A. A. held a Faculty vs. Seniors basketball game that raised funds to purchase the annual sports awards. Several candy sales were also sponsored by the A. A. during the basketball season.

Pete Van Dyke, Mary Bryan, Debbie Avery, Dennis Mathieson.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association, patterned after the A. A., sponsors all intramural contests for the girls in addition to the games and sports days played with other schools. It presents awards to outstanding athletes. The council members seated are: Jean Saberski, Volleyball; Barbara Clements, Basketball; Florence Johnson, President; Mrs. Dane, Advisor; Barbara Rae, Secretary-Treasurer; Barbara MacKinnon, Softball; Linda Walsh, Archery. Standing are: Faith Lagana, Lorraine Berge, Junior High representatives; Patty Cullen, Hockey.

GIRLS SPORTS

BASKETBALL

This year our basketball teams have played against Pleasantville and Irvington. Each class has formed two teams to compete in intramurals. W. I. has had the biggest turn out in years. Our basketball manager is Barbara Clements.

TENNIS

There has been a nucleus of an excellent varsity tennis team in W.I. this year to play against Irvington. Many girls who show great promise in this competitive sport are advancing from the lower grades. The manager of tennis is Roseanne Weeks.

ARCHERY

This fall thirty girls have appeared during the noon hour to participate in archery. All these sharpshooters have increased their skill in striking the target with a bull's-eye. The girls will practice again in the spring. Linda Walsh manages this sport.

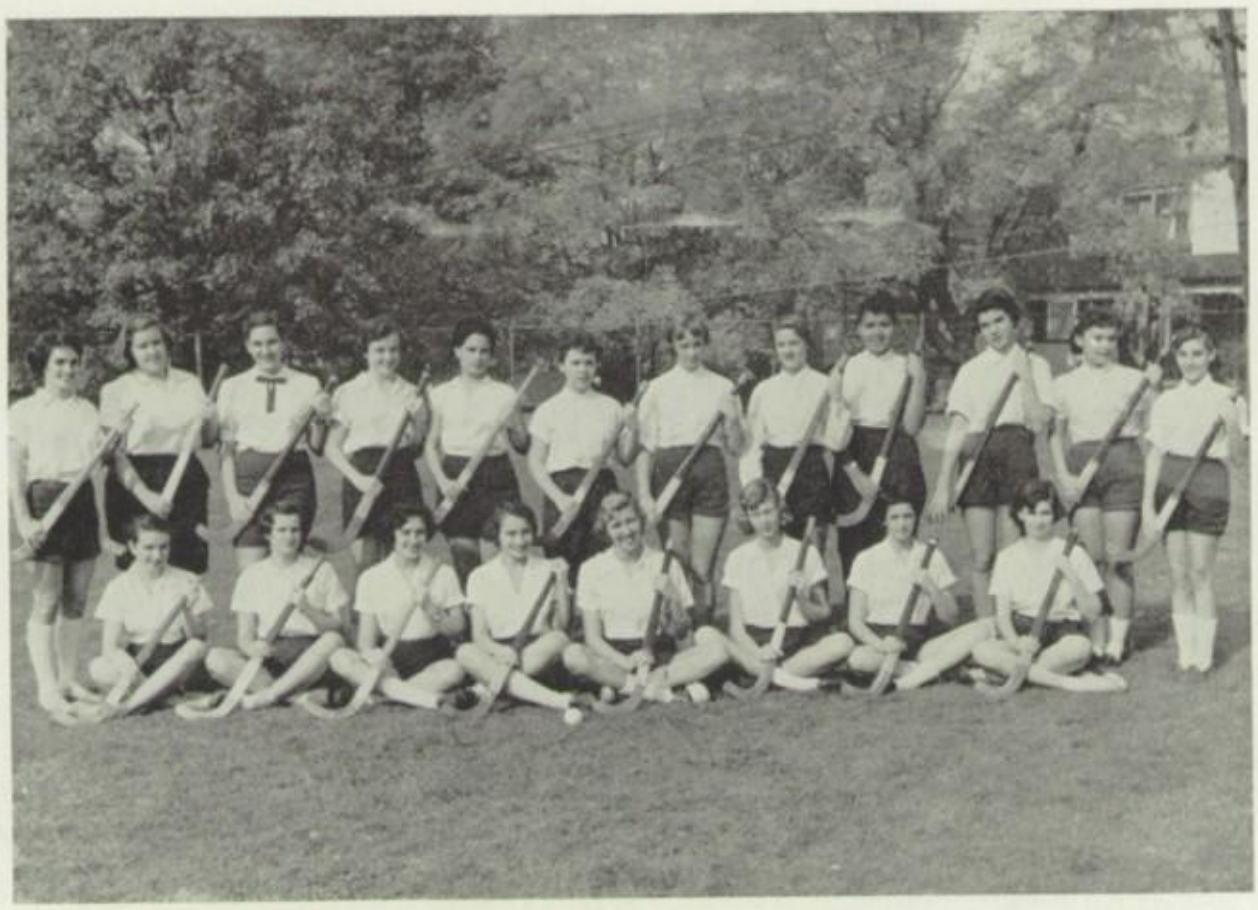
BADMINTON

The gym has been the scene of flying birdies as fifty couples braving the pains of a stiff neck, turned out for badminton intramurals. Mrs. Dane hopes to invite neighboring high school students to compete against us in the near future. Mary Jane Smith manages badminton.

VOLLEYBALL

The peak of the volleyball season arrives when the coed teams compete against other county schools. Last year at the County Center, W.I. had four wins and one loss to Bronxville. Games planned this year by Jean Saberski, the manager, are to be played against Elmsford and Irvington. A volley ball Play Day will be held at Washington Irving.

HOCKEY



This year our hockey teams have had an undefeated season. The first team led by Linda Hall and the second by Jean Austin played three games defeating Croton and Elmsford and tying with Irvington. The manager of this game was Pat Cullen.

KICKBALL

In the kickball tournament, a three game series which was held for the Junior High students, the Seventh Grade team was victorious over its seniors for the first time in eight years.

ALHAMBRA STAFF

CLASS HISTORY

As the leaves of '52 drifted slowly to a resting place, we Seniors became the first Junior High grade to form an organized class. This we did by electing officers and asking Mr. Cushman to advise us. Immediately the Class of '56 began building a substantial treasury. Junior High trips included visits to the Hayden Planetarium, Botanical Gardens, Museum of Natural History, the Bronx Zoo, and Bear Mountain.

In the Fall of our Freshman year, after the wise selection of Mr. Leccese as advisor, we faced the grim trials of initiation. But the embarrassing stunts were soon forgotten as we swung into a full schedule. Our April dance, The Bunny Hop, set everyone to wiggling his ears in hard work.

Our first year was now over, and after two months of needed vacation we returned as Sophomores selling magazines in order to top the previous record, which we did. We took our turn in initiating the unsuspecting underclassmen, but Spring produced a new dread; that of regents exams.

Every Junior saved his pennies faithfully to be among the first to show off his class ring. Mr. Whiteside brought comedy and drama into our lives as "The Man Who Came To Dinner." Entertaining the departing seniors at our prom, "A Midsummer Night's Madness", closed our Junior year.

September arrived again and we returned to W.I. but this time as the center of attraction. We rushed the Christmas feeling with our card sale, but too soon the holiday was over and work began on "The Curious Savage". The final ceremonies, dinners, and parties that were attended as we reached the end of our last season at Washington Irving, made the Senior Class realize its regret at leaving behind important formative years, but the future gleamed brightly before us.
